

Training phase - learn parameters θ and W from training data

Testing phase - use learned parameters θ^* and W^* to infer protein functions

